

The Larimer County Fair and Rodeo supports the well-being of all animals that participate in fair and rodeo events. Owners are responsible to properly care for and manage their animals at all times during the fair and rodeo. The Larimer County Fair and Rodeo does not tolerate, condone or permit actions that abuse animals. The Fair and Rodeo recognize that animals may be injured during events. Any injured animal is provided prompt veterinary attention and is protected from further harm. Every attempt is made to insure the injured animal is comfortable and to help it recover by dismissing it from further participation in the fair and rodeo. Any person concerned about an animal's welfare is encouraged to immediately contact the Larimer County Fair & Rodeo Office at 970-619-4009.
